The Saywitz Company, one of the largest privately held commercial real estate brokerage firms in Southern California, recently hired two property management supervisors: Christina Huapaya and Diana Liston. Both Huapaya and Liston will oversee the day-to-day aspects and management of the company's real estate investment portfolio throughout Southern California.

Currently, The Saywitz Company owns and manages more than 75 multifamily properties and office buildings throughout Orange, Los Angeles, Riverside and San Bernardino counties. Huapaya and Liston come to The Saywitz Company with 10 and 15 years of experience in the real estate industry, respectively. Both individuals are extremely well versed in all aspects of property management.

"We are confident that both Christina's and Diana's expertise and experience will assist us in providing for greater communication between the company and our tenants, and will allow us to continue to grow moving forward," said Barry Saywitz, president of The Saywitz Company.

Huapaya has more than 10 years of real estate experience and comes to The Saywitz Company with a variety of experience from other notable real estate companies such as Equity Residential, UDR and Western National.

Liston has more than 15 years of real estate experience and comes to the company with previous experience in working for such notable real estate companies as Decron, JH Real Estate Partners and Anza Management.

Both individuals will work out of The Saywitz Company's Newport Beach office.
