

Barry Saywitz of The Saywitz Company Recently Named to Worldwide "Who's Who" List for 2014

By Patch Staff

September 5, 2014

Barry Saywitz Celebrates Two Decades in His Current Role as President

Barry Saywitz, president of an eponymous real estate brokerage firm, has been recognized by Worldwide Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in commercial real estate. Worldwide Who's Who is a prestigious personal branding and networking organization with more than 500,000 members.

Operating above par for two and a half decades, Saywitz has found professional success with his own company. Over the course of the past 20 years, in his role as president, he has overseen all of the ownership responsibilities and remained involved with the negotiations of various transactions for the company throughout North America.

Saywitz began in his field while obtaining his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of California, Los Angeles. He took an internship with Grubb & Ellis and subsequently obtained a position with Howard Ecker & Co. In 1992, he became a partner in Howard Ecker's west coast operations and two years later purchased the company, changing its name to The Saywitz Company. He continues to own, operate and manage the company's multi-faced operations. A shining example of excellence in his field, Saywitz was recently inducted into Worldwide Branding in recognition of his amazing accomplishments. In the near future, Saywitz looks forward to the continued growth of the company.