PRESS RELEASE

THE SAYWITZ COMPANY EXPANDS WITH TWO NEW HIRES

August 13, 2020:

The Saywitz Company, a national commercial real estate brokerage, consulting and investment firm headquartered in Newport Beach, California, has added two new team members to its operations. Nicole Leonesio comes to the Saywitz Company with a background in customer relations and administration. She is a lifelong resident of Southern California and has recently relocated from the Palm Springs area to Orange County. Nicole has a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and Management from Cal State University. Her role with the Saywitz Company will be to assist with the property management division of the company with client relations, administration, and property management functions.

Natalie Flores comes to the Saywitz Company with a background in marketing, customer relations, and administration. Natalie is a lifelong resident of Orange County and has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications from the University of Arizona. Natalie will assist both the brokerage and property management divisions of the Saywitz Company with its daily operations and expansion.

Barry Saywitz, President of the Saywitz Company, noted "We are excited about the addition of these two new individuals. They are both young and energetic, both have a background with skills that will assist us in continuing to grow our business on a going forward basis. We are excited to have them as a part of our team."

The Saywitz Company is one of the largest privately held commercial real estate brokerage companies in Southern California and has been in business for more than 45 years. The Saywitz Company was named to the Inc. 5000's fastest growing companies in America for the past several years and continues to expand its operations in Orange County and its client base throughout the country.
