The Saywitz Company Hires New Associate Broker

October 15, 2012

The Saywitz Company recently hired Irvine resident Tyler Edminsten-Garcia as associate in the firm's Newport Beach office. Garcia has joined The Saywitz Company to assist the business development group in the expansion of The Saywitz Company's client base in Southern California. Prior to joining The Saywitz Company, he worked for Verizon Wireless and Adecco in business development, customer service and client relations. Garcia has been a resident of Orange County for more than 23 years. Garcia's experience in client relations and business development will prove to be a valuable asset to the company's business development group.
